SUBJECT: Environmental Management System (EMS) at NASA Ames Research
Center Declaration of Conformance

I have determined that NASA Ames Research Center has an environmental management system that is in place and is viable. In accordance with NPR 8553.1B, NASA Environmental Management Systems, we are submitting this response to confirm that senior management, has reviewed the environmental management system for conformance with NASA Procedural EMS Requirements and Center EMS requirements.

The determination that the environmental management system has included consideration of the results of the following assessments: 2009 Environmental Functional Review, February 2009 and NASA Ames Research Center EMS Annual Review, August 2010. The audit findings have been recognized by appropriate Center management.

Please contact Ann Clarke, Chief, Environmental Management Division at 650-604-2350 should you have any further questions.
